“ Bryan, and I were friends for roughly 40 years. His brother Nate, and I were best friends in high school. Then I started hanging out with Bryan when he lived on N. Main Street in Goshen. My brother met his first wife there. Then when he moved too Briarwood with Scott Bridenstine, I met my first wife there. There were always a lot of girls hanging out at Bryan's house. We had so much fun just hanging out, going to concerts, and the shenanigans were epic. He was my partner in crime, and a true friend. We stayed tight through the late 80's through the birth of our first children, and our first marriages. I shared so much fun, and laughter with Bryan through the years. I saw him a few years ago at Nate's 4th of July party, and it was just like old times. He was so proud to be a grandfather. Little did I know that would be the last time I would see him in person. Bryan was liked by all, loved by many, and will be sorely missed by all that had the pleasure to know him. My sincere condolences to my dear friends Nate, and Julie, Lynette, Todd, and his children, and grandchildren. Until we meet again, R.I.P. Bryan.
